ORDER:-

In the letter 1st read above, the Director & CEO, AIIMS, Mangalagairi has informed that there is a spike of medico legal cases at times dead bodies of unnatural deaths are being brought to the emergency unit. As a mandate the MBBS students should have training for medico legal autopsies. Since it's a teaching tertiary care hospital, it is essential to start autopsy facility at the institute to train and teach UG and PG students at the institute. The department of Forensic Medicine and Toxicology, AIIMS, Mangalagiri is well equipped with adequate number of qualified, experienced manpower and a state of the art mortuary to cater the medico legal autopsies. He has, therefore, requested to allot nearby police station and to conduct the post-mortem examination of unnatural deaths in its jurisdiction and deaths occurring in the institute.

2. The Director of Medical Education (DME), A.P, in the reference 2nd read above, has suggested that the All India Institute of Medical Sciences (AIIMS) could use the medico-legal centre at the Government Hospital, Mangalagiri for teaching and training.

3. The Home Department, upon consultation, has reported no objection from the Director General of Police (DGP), A.P., for starting post-mortem examinations at AIIMS, Mangalagiri. The DGP has also clarified that the jurisdiction of the police station for AIIMS, Mangalagiri will be that of Mangalagiri Rural Police Station.

4. Government after careful examination of the matter, hereby authorize AIIMS, Mangalagiri to conduct post-mortem examinations for unnatural deaths within its jurisdiction and deaths occurring in the institute and designate Mangalagiri Rural Police Station as the jurisdiction Police Station for this purpose.

5. The Director & CEO, AIIMS, Mangalagairi shall take necessary action accordingly.

6. This order issues with the concurrence of Home Department vide their Note dated 11.12.2023.
